You Make the Difference.

Our generous friends and supporters make it possible for us to nurture and grow the artists in our community.

A legacy gift could be right for you if...

- You'd like to make a significant gift but don't have significant cash today.
- You wish to make an enduring statement about your values and your community.
- You want to say "thank you" in a meaningful way for what The Art League has meant to you or to a loved one.
- You like the idea of meeting personal financial goals while being charitable at the same time.
- You believe in the mission of The Art League and want to see it continue for generations to come.

Four easy ways to be generous

These are popular legacy gifts that are simple to arrange, create permanent support, and in some cases return significant benefits to you.

1 Honor a loved one with a tribute gift through your will or trust.

This is a simple, meaningful way to leave an enduring and creative statement about who you are and who and what's most important to you.

2 Make The Art League a beneficiary of your IRA or retirement account.

With a simple form, you can leave The Art League's community the balance of a bank account or a retirement plan. In some cases, you can save your family up to 70% tax on your retirement assets.

3 Use your will or trust to give the League a valuable object.

Your legacy gift might be collecting dust in your studio or attic—artwork, antiques, stocks. In some cases you can gain significant tax benefits by donating an appreciated asset.

4 Convert life insurance into a gift.

Some friends of The Art League are choosing to use life insurance to make a large charitable gift. You can consider giving a policy you no longer need by making The Art League a beneficiary of an old policy or of a new policy.
